

Name : _____ Class : _____ Day of Visit : _____

Name of School : _____

Welcome to the Hong Kong Museum of Coastal Defence! You have arrived at a place of fierce fighting a hundred years ago. The Redoubt is the core of the Fort built by the British. Please visit all of the exhibition galleries and finish this worksheet so that you can have a better understanding of the history of coastal defence in Hong Kong.

(a) Which nation does this type of war junk belong to?

(b) Do you think that it was superior to those from the West?

Yes No

Why?

(c) Can you find any Western war junk model from the galleries?

Yes No

By which treaty did the British obtain Kowloon Peninsula from the Qing government?
Please circle it from the left.

3

Which of the following weapons could be found in the gallery of Qing dynasty?

A

B

C

D

4

(a) Which two nations were involved in the First Opium War?

(b) Which country was defeated?

(c) Why? Could you find out the reason from the exhibition?

7

(a) Is there any garrison in Hong Kong after 1997?

Yes

No

(b) Which garrison does the following officer's cap belong to?

(c) Where are they stationing in Hong Kong?

Central

Wanchai

Stanley

Stonecutter's Island

Shek Kong

8

Which exhibits give you the deepest impression? Why?

9

What is the most interesting thing that you observe in the Hong Kong Museum of Coastal Defence? Please draw it down in the following space.

A large white rectangular space for drawing.