In connection with this programme, please provide the following information about The Judo Association of Hong Kong, China:

- a) the amount of subvention received from the Government;
- b) the respective (i) amount and (ii) percentage of different types of expenses; whether the upper percentage limit of each expenditure item against the total amount of subvention is stipulated in the grant agreement;
- c) the distribution of salary subvention in a table.

Asked by: Hon LAM Cheuk-ting (LegCo internal reference no.: 59)Reply:

In 2018-19, The Judo Association of Hong Kong, China received a total subvention of about $4.0 million under the Sports Subvention Scheme (SSS). Detailed breakdown on the types of expenses is set out in the following table –

	Subvention Amount ($'000)	% of total
Personnel expenses	1,380	34
Office expenses	144	4
Programme expenses	2,173	54
Notional venue charges	308	8
Total:	4,005	100

Under SSS, “national sports associations” (NSAs) are required to submit their annual plan to the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD), which will be taken into account in determining the amount of annual subvention. NSAs and LCSD will sign an annual Subvention Agreement, and NSAs must use the subvention to implement the planned programmes in strict accordance with the requirements stated in the Agreement.
