ZHANG Chiliang (dates unknown; a contemporary of Li Zuyou)

Zhang Chiliang (dates unknown; a contemporary of Li Zuyou), literary name Guxiang zhai zhuren, was renowned as a scholar of epigraphy, seal carver and calligrapher. His grandfather Zhang Fengsan was a celebrated Guangdong epigrapher in the late Qing period, and travelled along with Huang Shiling, Xu Sangeng and Fu Ziqin. Coming from a family of scholars, Zhang Chiliang was indebted for his bronze and seal scripts to the Qin and Han seals. He made a contribution to the development of art as he held exhibitions in Hong Kong, Thailand and Vietnam. His circle of friends included Zhang Daqian and Pu Xinyu.
