8. Arrangements of Skill Test: The skill test will be conducted in the first session. All applicants are required to take the test.
- Both the scope and content of the test are determined by the CAHK. For details of the test items, please refer to the prospectus of the skill test selection day provided by the CAHK, which will be emailed to applicants within three working days before the selection day.
 - The CAHK reserves all the rights to change the date, time and test items of the skill test, to which applicants must not raise any objection.
 - Applicants must don sportswear and sports shoes, and bring valid supporting documents with a photograph and the year of birth including handbooks and student ID cards. Failure to do so may result in being denied access to the test venue by the CAHK.
 - The CAHK will notify applicants of their admission by email within three working days after the skill test. Those failing to be admitted will be placed on a waiting list in an order based on their results. In case of withdrawal by successful candidates, the vacancies so arising will be filled by others on the list in order.
9. Course Content: It covers theoretical and practical elements, the former containing venue introduction, rules of competition and written tests and the latter including basic track cycling skills, physical training, simulated competition training, application of tactics during competitions and qualification assessments on use of venues.
10. Continuous Development: Participants with outstanding performance may be invited to the selection exercises of the “Searching for New Sport Stars Programme” and the “Young Athletes Cycling Training Scheme”. Those shortlisted may receive multi-stage training, upon which participants with advanced skills will be recommended by coaches for feeder training.
11. Coach: Registered track cycling coaches will be assigned by the CAHK.
12. Equipment: Participants should bring their own track bikes and helmets. Alternatively, they may borrow such items from the CAHK.
13. Award : Participants achieving an attendance of 80% or above will be awarded a Certificate of Attendance from the LCSD to serve as an encouragement.
14. Enrolment Form: Applicants may obtain the form from schools, or alternatively download a copy from the following websites:
The LCSD’s website: <http://www.lcsd.gov.hk/en/ssp/index.html>
The CAHK’s website: <http://www.cycling.org.hk>
15. Notes for Enrolment :
- Applicants should all apply in personal capacity.
 - Applicants should submit completed enrolment forms, together with crossed cheques in payment made payable to “The Cycling Association of Hong Kong, China Limited” with his or her school name and name written on the back (each with a separate cheque), in person or by post to the School Sports Programme Unit, 1/F, Leisure and Cultural Services Headquarters, 1-3 Pai Tau Street, Sha Tin on or before the corresponding deadline. Please mark on the envelope “Joint School Cycling Training Programme – Track Cycling”. Late applications will not be accepted.
 - The enrolment fees paid will not be refunded once enrolment is confirmed.
 - Cheques will be returned to unsuccessful applicants.
 - The Organiser may cancel the course in case of insufficient enrolment.
 - In the event that the Observatory issues the Tropical Cyclone Warning Signal No. 3 or above, or Amber/Red/Black Rainstorm Signal two hours before the activity; or the Education Bureau announces class suspension; or the Environmental Protection Department announces that the Air Quality Health Index recorded by general air quality monitoring stations has reached the “Serious Level” (i.e. 10+) in the area concerned, all activities on the day will be cancelled. There will be no refund for any cancelled classes. Subject to the availability of venues, the CAHK will arrange, if possible, make-up classes. In case of inclement weather, please contact the coach-in-charge for enquiries about arrangements. Even if the Observatory issues the Thunderstorm Warning two hours before the activity, students and coaches must arrive at the venue on time subject to actual circumstances.
